Save the Date!

Tuesday, October 8, 2019

12:30 to 5:00 p.m.

Farrell Learning and Teaching Center

Please join us for the Washington University School of Medicine's 14th Annual Research Training Symposium and Poster Session. We are expecting over 200 attendees, five oral presenters, and over 120 posters from 40 programs. We are excited to have so many participants coming to present, discuss, and contribute to clinical, translational, and basic science research.

Dr. Michael DeBaun, Professor of Pediatrics and Medicine at Vanderbilt University School of Medicine will deliver the keynote address "Academic Activism and Clinical Research: Choosing the Right Time and the Right Place."

For more information, visit the CRTC website and the Office of Medical Student Research.

This event is sponsored by the Clinical Research Training Center and the Institute of Clinical and Translational Sciences.
