

Applied Health Behavior Research Program

Spring Courses are Open for Registration!

AHBR Spring Course Listings (January 13-May 1)

M88-505 Mentored Research

M88-508 Project Management in Clinical and Community Settings

M88-524 Foundations of Health Care Research

M88-532 Principles of Management in Health Care Services

M88-536 Health Education: Methods, Planning and Evaluation

M88-548 Applied Data Management

M88-588 Epidemiology for Clinical Research

Course Highlights

M88-536 Health Education: Methods, Planning, & Evaluation

Master essential concepts of learning theory as they relate to health behavior, and gain knowledge and skills to plan, develop, implement, monitor and evaluate behavior change programs for improving health status. Tuesdays, 5:30 - 8 p.m.

M88-548 Applied Data Management

Gain advanced skills for work in applied research in health and social sciences. Software tools include SPSS, SAS, MySQL, Excel, R, and Microsoft Access. Thursdays, 4:30 - 7 p.m.

- Available to Open Enrollment students.
- All courses are tuition benefit-eligible.
- To register, contact ahbr@email.wustl.edu; 314-454-8965.

Attachments:

AHBR Course Listing - Spring 2020