

Registration is Open for the Fall 2018 LEAP Cycle

Twice per year, the Leadership in Entrepreneurial Acceleration Program (LEAP) awards funding to those with translational research and inventions with the goal of commercializing the projects. [See Spring 2018 awardees]

Registration is now open!

Benefits of LEAP:

- Be considered for funding of up to $50K for top-scoring projects
- Receive guidance in turning your exploratory project into an asset with a clear Development/Commercialization Plan
- Learn how to make your asset attractive to funding partners (e.g. grants, investors, etc.)
- Receive feedback from industry-relevant experts
- Craft a professional slide deck
- A dedicated point person (Tom Krenning) to provide support in navigating the various innovation and translation opportunities at the university (ICTS, CDD, OTM etc.)

Open to: Any person/team with WashU intellectual property

Register by August 27th: bit.ly/Register-LEAP

Questions: Tom Krenning, tomkrenning@wustl.edu
